EXHIBIT A TO PROOF OF CLAIM OF SJUNDE AP-FONDEN ON BEHALF OF A PUTATIVE
CLASS OF DAMAGED INVESTORS

Sjunde AP-Fonden, on behalf of a putative class of investors who purchased or otherwise acquired securities of Signature Bank, (the “Claimants”), files this proof of claim (“Proof of Claim”) in accordance with the receivership claims process (“Signature Bank Claims Resolution Process”) established by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation for claims against Signature Bank.

Background

The Claimants purchased or otherwise acquired securities of Signature Bank and are participating in an action pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York (the “EDNY District Court”), under Case Nos. 1:23-cv-01921 and 1:23-cv-02501. Among other things, Claimants and certain class action plaintiffs have filed motions, which are currently pending, seeking the consolidation of related class actions and seeking appointment as Lead Plaintiff and the appointment as lead counsel.

This claim is based upon public misrepresentations regarding Signature Bank’s financial condition made in registration statements, other SEC filings, and multiple public statements (the “Misrepresentations”). Details regarding the Misrepresentations are set forth in the complaints filed in the following Class Actions and related papers all of which can be accessed through EDNY District Court PACER in Case Nos. 1:23-cv-01921 and 1:23-cv-02501.

Among other things, the Misrepresentations misstated and/or omitted material information about the strength of Signature Bank’s balance sheet, its regulatory compliance, risk management, and liquidity, and position in the market, and concealing the risks facing Signature Bank’s business model.

Claimants and other investors began to learn the truth about Signature Bank’s precarious financial position, including the liquidity issues it was facing, through a series of corrective disclosures in which Signature Bank began to announce disappointing financial results and other news which caused the price of Signature Bank common stock to decline. Ultimately, Signature Bank experienced a significant liquidity crisis in March 2023, and was shuttered by regulators on March 12, 2023, resulting in the third-largest bank failure in U.S. history. NASDAQ delisted Signature Bank’s stock, and the New York State Department of Financial Services (“NYDFS”) closed Signature Bank and appointed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as its receiver.

Claims

At present, the claims against Signature Bank arise under Sections 11, 12(a)(2), and 15 of the Securities Act of 1933, 15 U.S.C. §§ 77k, 77l(a)(2), and 77o, and/or Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78j(b) and 78t(a). The bases for Claimants’ claims are the Misrepresentations made to the Claimants regarding, among other things, the strength of Signature Bank's balance sheet, its regulatory compliance, risk management, and liquidity, and position in the market, and those concealing the risks facing Signature Bank's business model.

Reservation of Rights

Nothing in this Proof of Claim is or shall be deemed to be a waiver of any of Claimants' rights, claims, or defenses related to any actions brought by Claimants, or any actions in which Claimants are participating, against third parties in any way related to transactions in Signature Bank securities.

Claimants reserve the right to amend and supplement this Proof of Claim as appropriate.

The filing of this Proof of Claim shall not constitute: (1) an admission or consent by Claimants that the Signature Bank Claims Resolution Process is the proper forum to resolve the aforementioned claims, litigation, or related matters; or (2) an election or waiver of any remedies.

Nothing in this Proof of Claim shall be construed to prevent, limit, or otherwise prejudice Claimants' right to assert that all or part of their claims are expenses of administration in this matter, or to assert additional claims as expenses of administration in this matter.
